1. A. Created Database and three tables Learners, Courses & Purchases

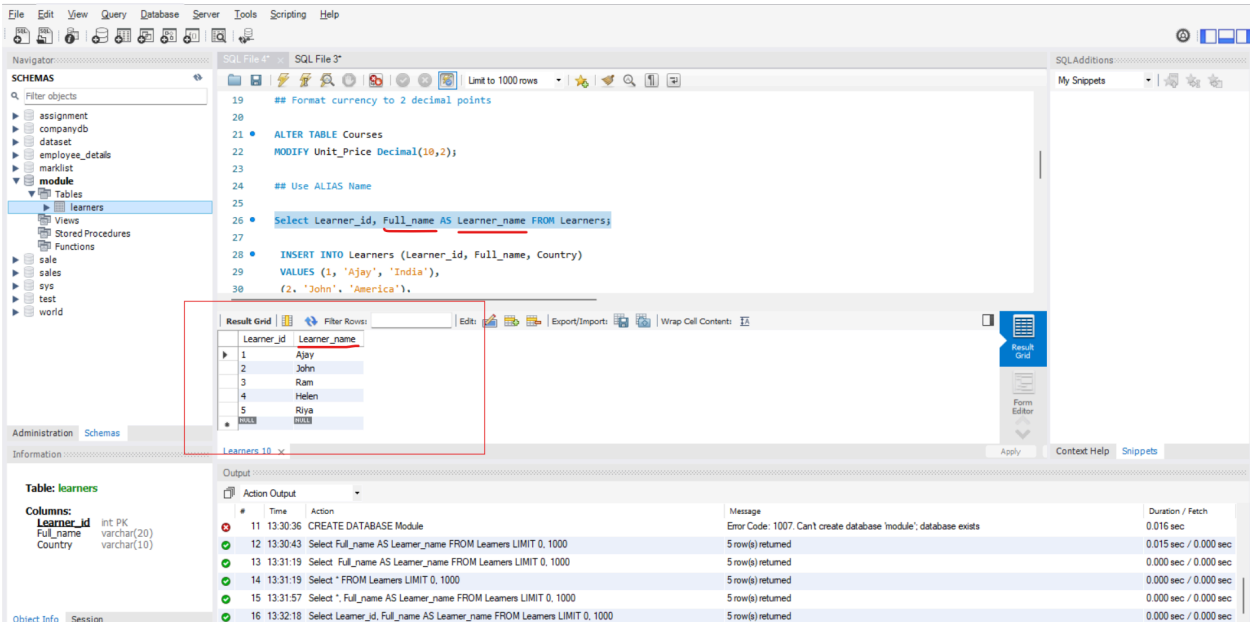

B. Inserted 5 learners, courses & purchases in to the table

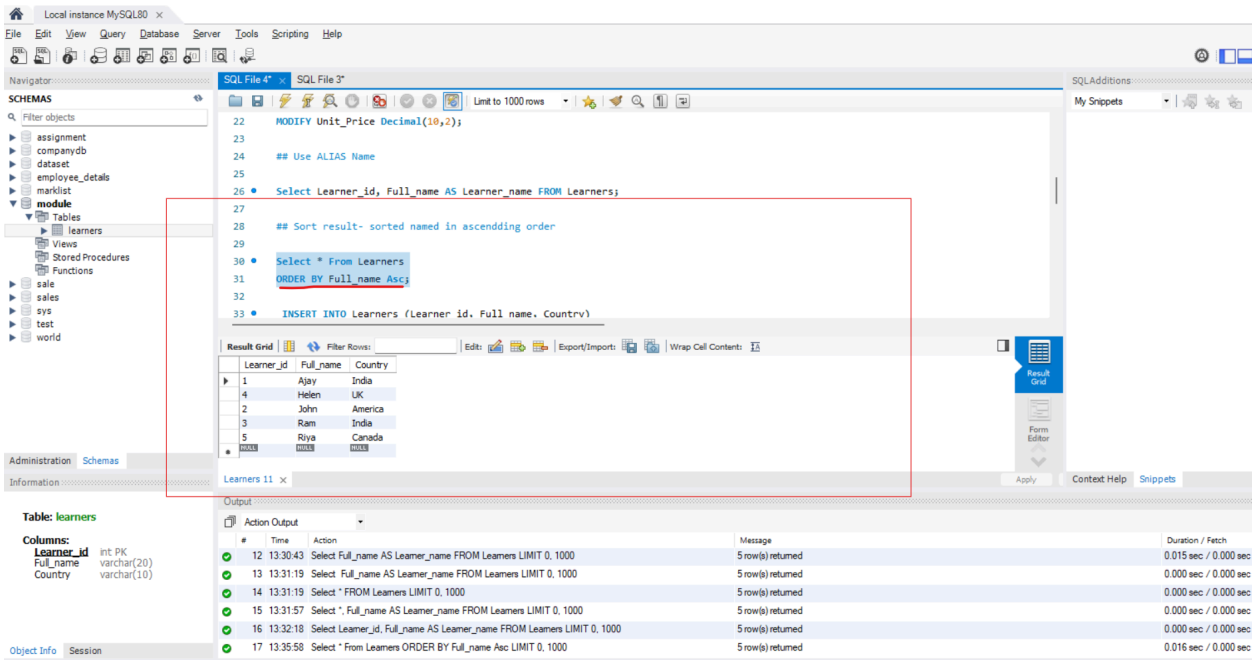

2. A. Format currency values to 2 decimal points

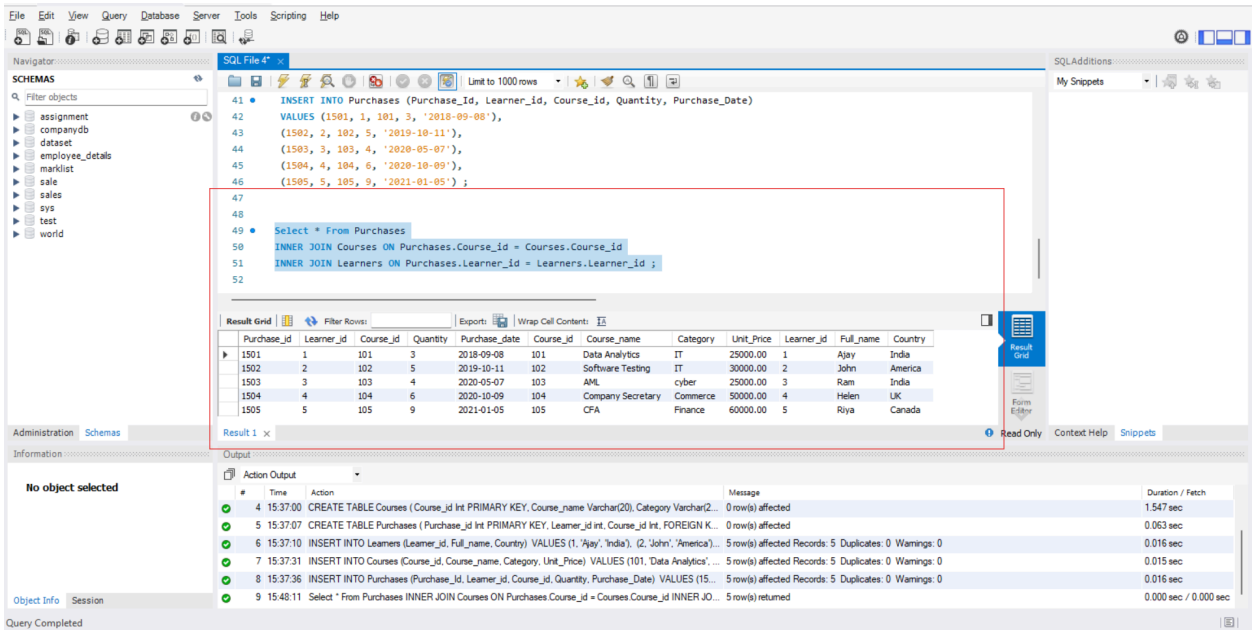

B. Alias names for columns= Changed Full_name to Learner_name using ALIAS name

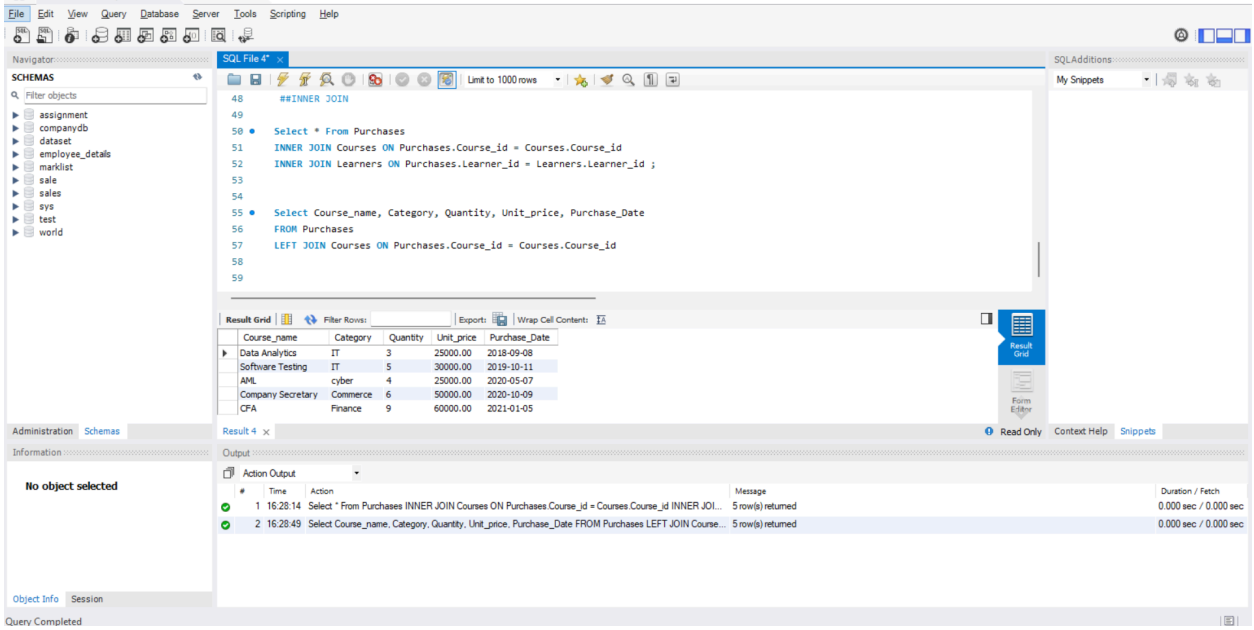

C. Sort Result appropriately- Sorted Learners name as per ascending

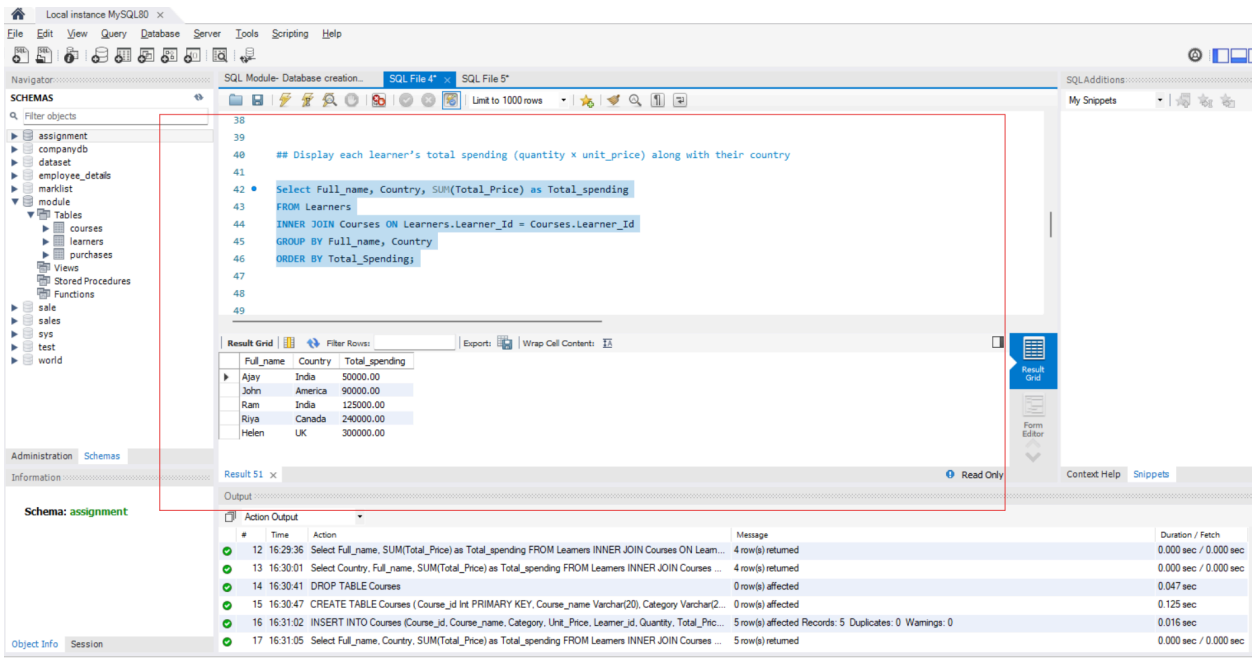

D. Combine Learner, courses & purchased data Using INNER JOIN

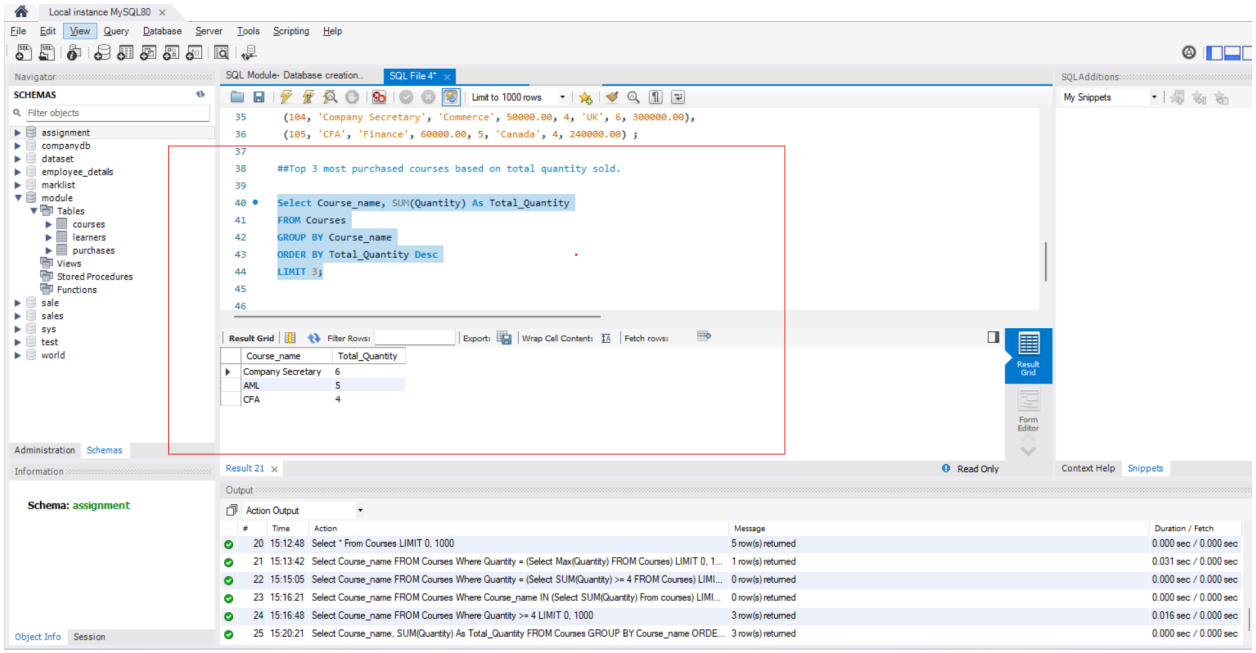

E. Display each learner's purchase details (course name, category, quantity, total amount, and purchase date) using LEFT JOIN

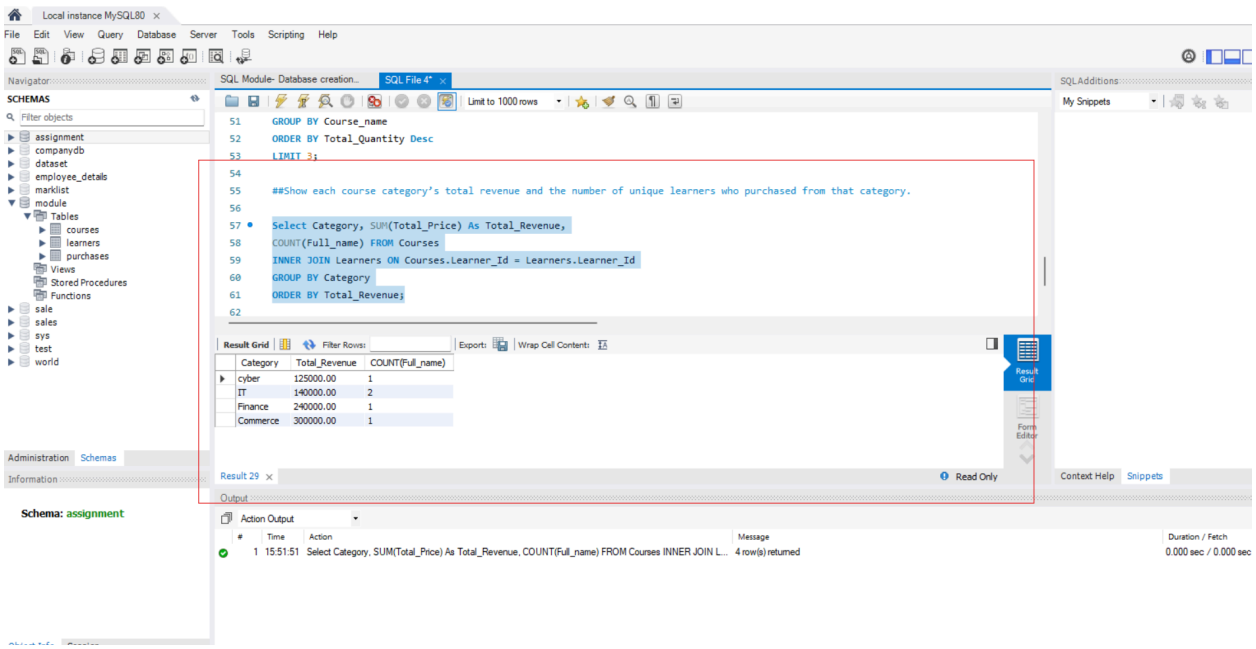

3. A. Display each learner's total spending (quantity × unit_price) along with their country

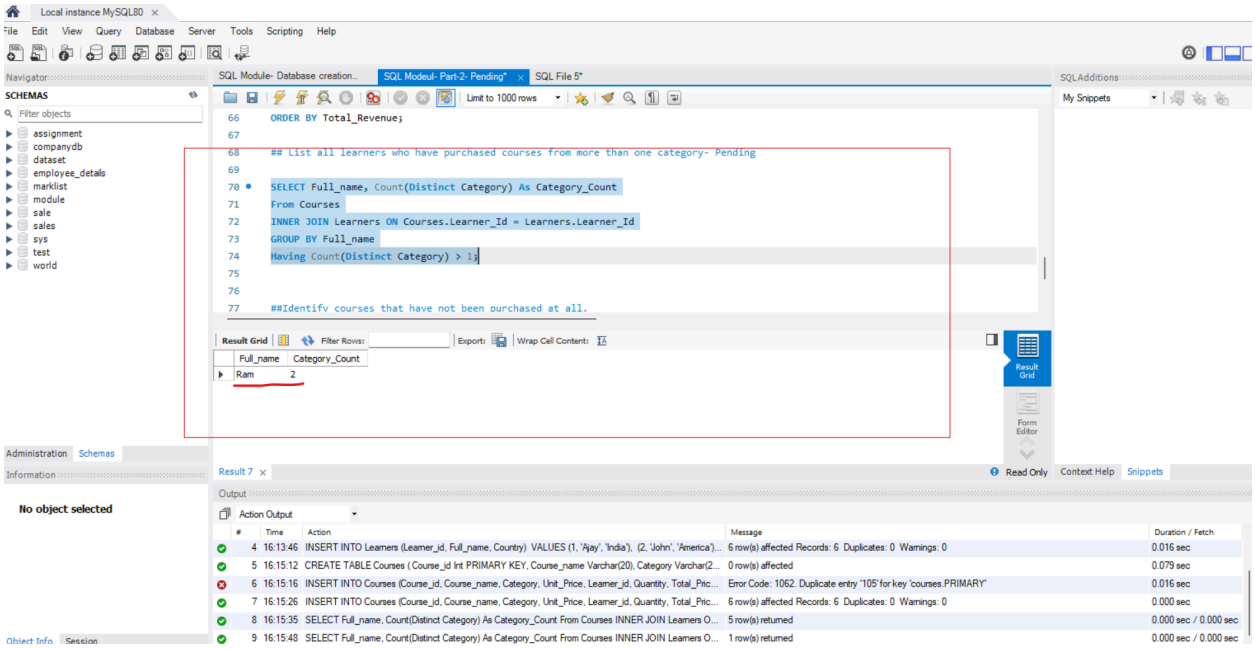

B. Top 3 most purchased courses based on total quantity sold.

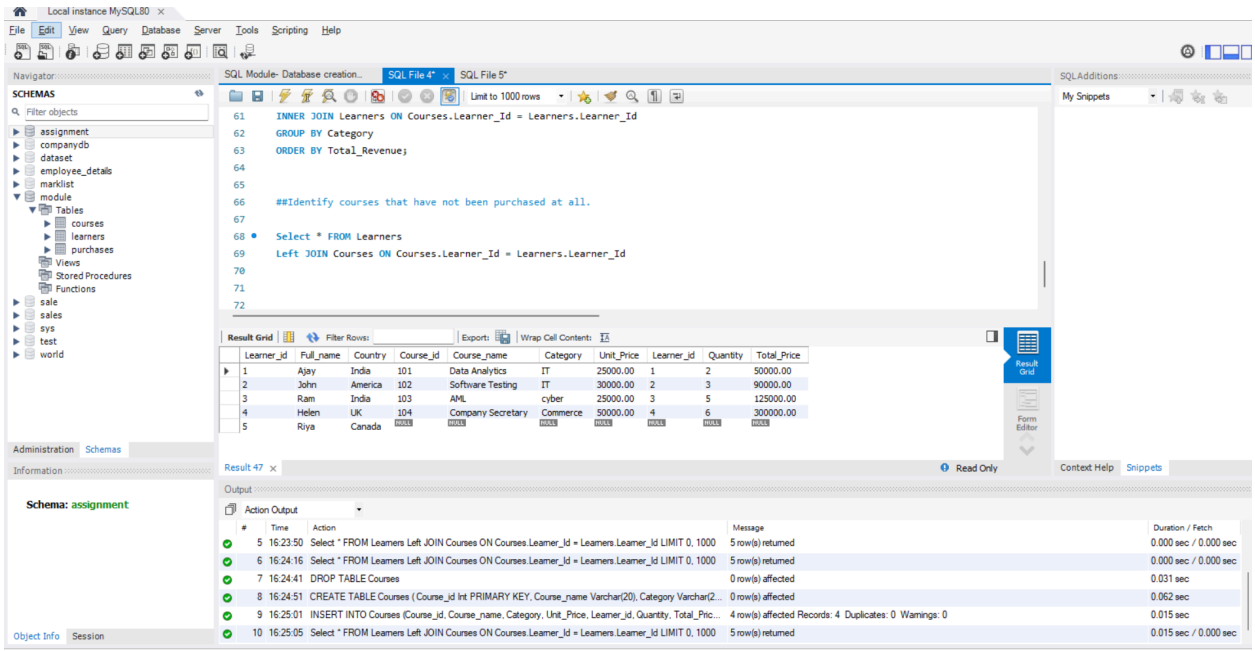

C. Show each course category's total revenue and the number of unique learners who purchased from that category.

D. List all learners who have purchased courses from more than one category

E. Identify courses that have not been purchased at all.

Summary

- Key Insights derived from above analysis is that learners are giving much importance to “IT” category and it is most selling courses in all category
- Top performing Course category is “IT” which has different course name and course id and learners are drawn much to this category

- Different courses related to IT category include, “Data analytics”, “Data Scientist”, “Software Testing”, and so this category is most performing among the all courses